

OGAP – Scope of Contribution

My primary contributions were focused on the preparation, execution, and subsequent analysis of an expert interview to support the validation of the underlying problem assumptions, as well as the creation of a flowchart to visualize selected process steps and interaction sequences within the proposed solution. Beyond these tasks, I contributed by supporting during the conceptual and development phases